

Butterfield Expands Banking Team In Jersey

Mar 24 2025

St. Helier, Jersey –24 March 2025: Butterfield, a local provider of banking services including savings accounts, mortgages and corporate banking, is pleased to welcome Daniel Peters and David Cardwell to the Banking Team as Corporate Relationship Manager and Local Market Developer, respectively.

Daniel Peters, who has extensive expertise providing banking to the fiduciary and fund sectors, has joined their Corporate Banking team. Prior to Butterfield, Daniel spent six years working at Barclays in the UK and Jersey. Before joining the banking industry, Daniel served as a Commissioned Officer in the British Army (Royal Engineers) for more 10 years.

David Cardwell brings over 35 years of experience in the banking industry. In his new role as Local Market Developer, he takes responsibility for building new client relationships in Jersey. Prior to Butterfield, he spent nine years at Investec and has held roles at Lloyds TSB, HSBC Expat, Standard Chartered Bank and Royal Bank of Scotland International.

Michelle Le Blond, Branch Manager said: “Daniel and David will play a key role in building local and corporate relationships as we continue to expand our presence and product offering in Jersey. I look forward to working with them both and know they will be great additions to the team.”

In addition to the new hires, existing team member Bronte Robson has been promoted to Relationship Manager in the Corporate Banking Team. In her new role she will focus on Butterfield’s existing corporate business, as well as establishing new relationships.
