

Butterfield leader included in “Global Elite 2021

Jul 17 2020

Deputy Group Head of Trust at Butterfield, Paul Hodgson, is to feature in a prestigious list of the world’s foremost lawyers and industry professionals. He has again been selected by Who’s Who Legal (WWL) for inclusion in the forthcoming edition of WWL Thought Leaders Global Elite 2021.

Based on independent research, WWL identifies industry-leading practitioners and consulting experts in business and law, and provides a platform to profile these professionals through publications, events and an online directory.

Paul is recognised as a leading industry expert and thought leader in the Private Client Trust & Advisory Services practice area. Paul has worked in the industry for over 32 years and is a member of the Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand and a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Securities and Investment. This is the second year in a row that Paul’s professional excellence has been recognised by WWL after being featured in the same publication’s 2020 edition and profiled as its Private Client Trust and Advisory Professional of the Year in 2019.

Upon hearing about the news Paul said: “It is an honour to again be nominated to appear in this highly-respected publication. The broad base of research undertaken by the team at WWL is a key strength of its work; it is extremely pleasing to be featured alongside leading private client professionals. I would also like to thank my colleagues for all their support and hard work, helping to ensure that Butterfield remains a leading offshore fiduciary and wealth manager.”

Paul’s profile will feature in the prestigious publication, with a hardback print edition being sent to a targeted readership of thousands of international corporate counsels. It will be published in October 2020 and in an online edition at www.WhosWhoLegal.com.
